Child & Caregiver Planning

Make one reunification and care plan for children and anyone who relies on another person for transportation, communication, personal care, supervision, or decision support.

! WARNING — URGENT ACTION

Official instructions take priority. Follow evacuation, shelter, school-release, and other directions from the responsible authority. Never return to a closed or dangerous area to reach a meeting place.

PEOPLE, CONTACTS, AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Person who Needs Support	Need / Responsibility	Primary Caregiver	Backup Caregiver

Out-of-area contact: _____ Phone / method: _____

School, child care, or care program: _____ Phone: _____

Authorized pickup people: _____

People who must not pick up: _____

RECONNECTION AND TRANSPORTATION

Near-home meeting place: _____

Outside-neighborhood meeting place: _____

Primary safe destination: _____ Backup: _____

Primary transportation: _____ Backup: _____

- ☐ Each caregiver understands the school or care site's emergency, release, and reunification rules.
- ☐ Children and other household members know who may pick them up and how to reach the out-of-area contact.
- ☐ Transportation can carry each person, essential equipment, supplies, and service animal together.
- ☐ Caregivers have keys, permissions, identification, instructions, and safe access to needed supplies.
- ☐ A paper copy is stored in each go-bag and given to each caregiver in a usable format.

Child & Caregiver Planning — continued

CARE DETAILS TO CARRY

Preferred communication, language, or calming method: _____

Medicine, allergy, dietary, mobility, medical, sensory, or personal-care instructions:

_____

Essential equipment, comfort item, or supply location: _____

- ☐ Private information is limited to what each caregiver needs and is stored securely.
- ☐ The plan was practiced on: _____
- ☐ Contacts and permissions were verified on: _____ Next review: _____

SOURCES

Sources: Ready.gov, “Make a Plan” and “Individuals with Disabilities”; Ready Kids, “Prepare Your Family.” Accessed September 25, 2026.